TOPIC	NEW LAW	OLD LAW	COMMENTS
Tax deductions you counted on in the past may have been eliminated or changed
Income tax brackets	7 brackets: 10–37%	7 brackets: 10–39.6%	Changes to paycheck withholding may need to be made
Standard deduction	$12,950 (single) / $25,900 (married filing jointly)	$6,350 (single) / $12,700 (married filing jointly)	Personal exemption is eliminated
Alternative Minimum Tax	$75,900 (single) / $118,100 (married filing jointly)	$54,300 (single) / $84,500 (married filing jointly)	Since most households will take the standard deduction, they will be less likely to pay the AMT
Medical expenses	Can deduct expenses that exceed 7.5% of Adjusted Gross Income (AGI)	Could deduct expenses that exceeded 10% of AGI	Originally the lower floor was for 2017 and 2018, but was extended permanently.
Miscellaneous itemized deductions	Eliminated	Could deduct moving expenses, investment fees, tax prep fees, casualty loss, etc.	Deductions were only permitted if they were at least 2% of AGI
Inflation measurement	Cost of living calculated by the Chained Consumer Price Index	Cost of living calculated by the Consumer Price Index	Chained CPI rises more slowly, meaning credits and deductions will be less valuable over time
Charitable giving	Cash contributions can be deducted up to 60% of AGI	Could only be deducted up to 50% of AGI	Taxpayers may deduct qualified cash contributions up to 100% of AGI for 2020 and 2021.
Where you live makes a big difference in how you are affected by the new rules on deducting state and local taxes (SALT)
SALT deduction	Deduction is limited to $10,000 for all state, local, property, and sales taxes. No inflation adjustment.	Unlimited ability to deduct SALT	High-tax states will feel the pinch. Some state governments are pursuing alternatives.
Mortgage interest	Can deduct interest on mortgage debt up to $750,000; home equity loan interest is not deductible unless used in connection with home acquisition or improvement	Could deduct interest on mortgage debt up to $1 million; could deduct the interest on up to $100,000 of home equity loans	Increased homeownership costs need to be considered when buying a home
